Meet your legislators and elected officials!

Senior Day is an opportunity for seniors to learn more about current legislation. We urge all participants to contact their legislators and invite them to participate in the program.

Let your legislator know your concerns!
That you are interested! That you vote!

All state legislators and elected officials have been invited to attend this event and briefly discuss issues of importance to seniors.

A box lunch will be available for $10.00 at the Central Presbyterian Church 1 1/2 blocks North of the Capitol between 16th and 17th on Sherman. All lunches must be reserved by February 17th! This gives you an opportunity to get to meet with seniors from around the state in a comfortable and informal basis.

Questions or concerns please call: CSL (303) 832-4535

Reservations and payments must be received by February 17, 2010
(Luncheon reservations received after this date WILL NOT be accepted)
